DAN KUHN TO PRESENT ON ALZHEIMER'S EARLY STAGES

La Grange, IL--Dan Kuhn, MSW, will discuss the latest information, coping strategies, and ways to manage the challenges of the early stages of Alzheimer's disease for family, friends, professionals and caregivers of those who have been diagnosed with the disease. The presentation will take place on Tuesday, February 25 from 2pm to 3pm in the Gottlieb Hospital Professional Office Building lower level, rooms E and F, 701 W North Ave, Melrose Park. The session is co-hosted by Aging Care Connections, La Grange, and Gottlieb Memorial Hospital's Geriatric Behavioral Health Services, Melrose Park. The program is free, however, space is limited and registration is necessary. Please call 708-354-1323 to register.

For the past 40 years, Dan Kuhn, MSW, a licensed clinical social worker, has concentrated on dementia care, end-of-life care, and family caregiver issues. He is a community educator and project manager for Rainbow Hospice and Palliative Care, Mount Prospect. An accomplished educator dedicated to helping individuals manage and cope, Kuhn has authored more than 50 publications and is a national speaker on this complex subject.

This program qualifies for one hour of continuing education credit from Rainbow Hospice and Palliative Care at no cost to nurses, social workers, nursing home administrators, and professional counselors who provide their license numbers and complete an evaluation.
